COMMUNICATIVE APPROACH

Our teaching method places great emphasis on the students' expectations, needs and personal learning styles. We provide a unique learning environment which genuinely helps the students to achieve their personal goals in studying the Italian Language and Culture. A general communicative approach is combined with the newest learning techniques and teaching strategies, which allows the teacher to customise the learning path and programme for each and every single learner.

Our Italian Teachers work with learners of diverse needs. By listening to the students' requests and guiding them through every aspect and stage of the learning process, our highly qualified professionals do their best and more to offer all the students a chance to learn and improve in every single lesson. Our Italian courses are extremely dynamic and demand active participation from the learners, taking into account, at the same time, each student's learning pace and character, thus providing a relaxing, productive, and authentically engaging communicative environment.

Intensive STANDARD course:

Monday to Friday: from 09:30 am to 13:00 pm; 4 lessons a day ,20 lessons a week.

This is by far the most requested course. It combines multiple hours with a relaxing and friendly atmosphere. You can enrol for just a week or for months at a time. Mere four lesson hours a day ensure constant and regular contact with the Italian language, and help develop a strong relationship between teachers and students. Students learn how to use the language in real-life situations, which can be easily applied to day-to-day activities while studying Italian in Rome.

Important: the students taking this course are eligible for a Study Visa. The School will provide an invitation letter, should the stay be of, at least, six months.

Intensive Plus course:

Monday to Friday: from 09:30 am to 13:00 pm, from 13:30 pm to 15:00 pm; 6 lessons a day, 30 lessons a week

The Intensive-Plus Course is a full-immersion route. It is specifically recommended for students who need to learn Italian quickly and whose stay in Rome is quite brief.

Important: the students taking this course are eligible for a Study Visa. The School will provide an invitation letter, should the stay be of, at least, six months.

One to One:

Timetable is at the student's discretion

Individual Courses are ideal for students who want to learn Italian in a completely stress-proof and informal atmosphere. Outdoor lessons are also a recommended option, as they provide the learner with a unique opportunity to savour the ancient city of Rome while acquiring functional and constructive language. Simple - but in no way less important - day-to-day contexts such as buying groceries or having a cup of cappuccino are also part of such lessons.
