OVER 40 YEARS OF EXCELLENCE

We founded the first LINGUAVIVA School in 1976 in Florence with the aim of encouraging international students to learn Italian, to know our culture and to experience Italy.

During the past 40 years of activity Linguaviva Group has gained an international reputation for academic excellence and high level of services.

We have been committed to continual improvement and Linguaviva prides itself of maintaining high levels of satisfaction and good services to our students and partners worldwide.

Our extensive range of Italian programmes has been designed to ensure that the specific needs of each individual are met: general Italian, vocational programmes in fine arts and design, culinary arts programme, Italian for business, internship experience, academic studies in Italy and a residential summer programme for juniors by the sea.

Effective and quality language learning, modern teaching approach, high quality and enthusiasm of our professional teachers, excellent accommodation and the overall care and services provided for our students are the keys to our commitment and success.

In Italy we offer the possibility to experience our Programmes in Florence and Milan throughout the year, in Lignano, summer programme for juniors, located on the Adriatic sea, close to Venice.

In our International centres in Shanghai and Tokyo we offer the same level of high quality teaching.

From the first moment I arrived at Linguaviva everything was completely amazing.

The staff consists of kind and lovely people, all of my teachers were very nice, funny and professional.

The staff at the reception, the free time activities and the accommodation office were also really kind and helpful.

I enjoyed very much the lessons, I learned a lot and met many new friends.

LEARNING ITALIAN WITH LINGUAVIVA

METHOD

Linguaviva Group offers a learning programme to meet the needs of all students, from beginners to advanced, who want to improve their Italian for personal, vocational, academic or professional purposes.

Our modern communicative approach will stimulate your interest in learning our language. The course contents cover all aspects of grammar, vocabulary, speaking, listening, reading and writing.

Teachers will use a range of teaching techniques including whole class teaching and group and pair work. During our language courses you will use a textbook which you can purchase at school and your teacher will provide extra learning material for each class. As no translation is used in the classroom you will be making rapid progress in Italian.

TEACHERS

All our teachers, native level Italian speakers, have professional teaching qualifications and are selected for their enthusiasm as well as their ability. Friendly and accessible, they appreciate the needs of students and take an active role in planning courses.

LEVELS

On your first day at school you take a specially designed written, listening and oral placement test, so that we can place you in the appropriate group for your language level. According to the Common European Framework we offer A1, A2, B1, B2, C1 levels corresponding to 13 levels of Linguaviva Learning Scale ranging from complete beginner to advanced. Use this chart to help identify your starting level and to assess how long you may need to study in order to reach your required level.

PROGRESS TESTS

We hold regular progress tests, these enable you and your teachers to measure your language development and evaluate your performance over a period of time. Each level can be completed in 4 weeks. At the end of each level, after successful completion of a test you can progress to the next level.

CERTIFICATES

When you have successfully completed your course you can ask for a Linguaviva certificate showing the length of the course and the language level achieved. These are the available certificates:

Certificate of Enrolment can be requested before you leave for Italy. It is necessary to apply for a study visa, it states the type and length of course.

Certificate of Attendance states the type of course you have attended, its duration and the level you have completed.

Certificate of Linguistic Competence issued after the end of the course exam at all levels.

THE FLORENCE EXPERIENCE

Florence is one of the world's most beautiful cities with its historic centre classified as a UNESCO World Heritage site.

In a relatively small area Florence contains a wealth of Renaissance art treasures among streets that were once walked by their great creators like Michelangelo, Botticelli and Leonardo da Vinci.

While Florence remains an artistic, architectural and a cultural gem, it is not locked in time; the city pulses with life from scurrying students in the university quarter to the businessmen who whiz by on their vespas. Linguaviva offers you the opportunity to study Italian in Florence, which is considered the birthplace of Italian language.

You will be overwhelmed by the artistic richness of the city and enjoy the friendly and international atmosphere in our Italian school in Florence.

MUSEUMS & GALLERIES

Florence, might seem like an open air museum to most visitors. However we suggest visiting one or two museums out of 72 museums full of masterpieces. There you will find the paintings, sculptures and frescoes imagined and created by the greatest minds of all time. Museums such as the Uffizi Gallery are not to be missed!

EATING OUT

In Florence while there are many grand gourmet restaurants, you can still eat simple, hearty local dishes at extremely reasonable prices. Tuscan cooking is historically at the root of Italian cuisine, and Florence has a strong claim to being the birthplace of Italian gastronomy. From classic trattorias to market stalls, Florence is one of the best places to enjoy simple, delicious Tuscan food.

SHOPPING & MARKETS

Florence is a great shopping destination for both shops and beautiful markets. Florence means one thing: style. Walking around the city you will find shops selling fashionable clothes, antiques and jewelry as well as typical Florentine crafts. You can explore the stylish boutiques lined up alongside the galleries and palazzi. Few cities of comparable size can boast such a profusion and variety of high-quality goods. There are many markets in Florence, and together with the daily markets there are even weekly and monthly markets. You will find that markets are generally selling either leather and other souvenirs, food or household goods.

NIGHTLIFE

Florence is known for its spectacular renaissance architecture, but after sun-set the city has other interesting aspects and its compact layout makes club hopping easy. Nightclubbing is fun and meeting point of students, travelers and dance-loving florentines alike, who come together and prove that you can party all night also in Florence.

MUSIC & THEATRE

Italian Opera was born in Florence over 400 years ago. Its musical tradition continues and music lovers will enjoy performances of various kind: opera, classical music and the latest music trends. The music and opera season, which lasts from October to April, is followed from the end of April to early July by the Maggio Musicale Fiorentino, a festival which attracts conductors and musicians from all over the world.

THE MILAN EXPERIENCE

Milan is Italy's richest and second largest city and is best known as Italy's style, fashion and design capital. Milan holds several historic and artistic attractions, including the largest Gothic cathedral in the world, Leonardo da Vinci's Last Supper painting and the famous La Scala Opera House. With something almost Northern European in the air, yet exuding Italian style, Milan is Italy's most cosmopolitan city.

It is also a top study destination. Fashion, Design, Architecture, Engineering, Music, Economics, Fine Arts are prominent fields of studies in Milan, attracting students from all over the world. In our Italian school in Milan you will have the opportunity to learn Italian, receive a very good preparation for your further academic or professional studies, while discovering a very stimulating and dynamic city.

WEATHER IN MILAN

MUSEUMS & GALLERIES

Off the beaten tourist tracks Milan still offers a wide range of museums with invaluable masterpieces. Milan boasts a richness and unique variety of museums. Amongst these is the most prestigious, the Pinacoteca di Brera, that preserves artworks of extraordinary artistic value inside its walls, and also the Castello Sforzesco (Sforza Castle) one of the symbols of Milan. The latter hosts Michelangelo's Pietà Rondanini in its museums.

Worthy of note are the lovely museum houses. They preserve works of art, furniture, jewellery and objects in striking buildings of great historical value. Not to be missed Leonardo Da Vinci's Last Supper.

SHOPPING & MARKETS

Milan is shopping. Milan is known all over the world as one of the temples of high fashion. Milan's boutiques fit into one square, bordered by via della Spiga, via Manzoni, via Sant'Andrea and via Montenapoleone: the Quadrilatero d'Oro (Rectangle of Gold).

In the Brera district, which is predominantly pedestrian area, you will find beautiful jewellery shops, small boutiques and artisan handmade fashion.

More reasonable shopping areas include the pedestrian area around Duomo, Corso Vittorio Emanuele, Via Torino and Corso Buenos Aires, where mid-range international brands proliferate.

EATING OUT

Milanese love food and eating out. Though stressed by time and work they love starting their day with a 'colazione al bar' (breakfast), having a short break at lunch time and to round off the working day with an aperitivo. Milano is truly international food wise and you can enjoy a typical risotto Milanese as well as a good sushi. Milanese love both!

NIGHTLIFE

'Work hard, party hard', Milan's nightlife has a diverse and lively club scene. Usually, parties start on Thursdays, and that party atmosphere continues until Sunday nights. Milan has hundreds and hundreds of bars, pubs, cafés, and wine cellars. Milan's nightlife scene is lively, rich and varied. Top European DJs play at numerous clubs in the city, and there are plenty of live music spots for lovers of disco, salsa, rock, jazz, alternative and even classical sounds.

MUSIC & THEATRE

Milano has an ample cultural offer that includes opera, drama, modern dance, ballet, cabaret, musical and shows dedicated to children. For centuries, some of its theatres and opera houses have been the performance sites of some of the best opera singers, composers and musicians, dancers, and playwrights and actors, both traditional and avant-garde. Since its inauguration in 1778, La Scala is one of the most important opera houses in the world.

LINGUADUE, LINGUAVIVA CAMPUS IN MILAN

LINGUADUE since 1990 has been offering international students the opportunity to learn Italian in Milan, in a friendly and thoroughly enjoyable atmosphere.

The school is in an excellent location in the centre of Milan in a well-known street in the commercial area, Corso Buenos Aires. The school is located in a beautiful art nouveau building and is easily accessible as it is close to the Underground station Lima. The Italian language courses organized by Linguadue are attended by international students from more than 60 different countries, mostly interested in design, fashion, music and business. Linguadue offers the possibility to study Italian language for their profession, their further studies, for everyday situations.

ACCOMMODATION IN FLORENCE AND MILAN

HOMESTAY

This is the ideal situation for students who wish to experience Italian daily life and to practise the language in an informal atmosphere. For all minor students the school will reserve only homestay accommodation. Most of our homestays have only single rooms and twin rooms (for two students coming together) are available only on request. Homestay accommodation offers a variety of meal arrangements: breakfast, half board and use of the kitchen. We take great care in selecting our homestay accommodation. Our accommodation and welfare officers regularly visit local homes to make sure a high standard of service is offered to you. We also carefully check feedback to make sure that course participants who stay in homestay are happy and that standards remain high.

Your hosts - We have a wide variety of families. Some consist of young couples, either with or without children, some are older, some are single parent families and others are widows living alone. Living with an Italian family will be very helpful for practising your Italian. Whoever your hosts are, they will be accustomed to having visitors stay with them. They will want to make sure you are happy and comfortable in their home.

Other guests in the same accommodation - You may not be the only guest staying in this accommodation. If there is another visitor he/she will speak a different language to you, so you will have plenty of opportunity to practise speaking Italian.

KEY FACTS

Options Half Board - Breakfast and dinner, served every day including week ends
Breakfast - You will be served a typical Italian breakfast every day of the week. This option does not foresee using the hosts kitchen to prepare other meals
Use of the kitchen - This is a self catering solution, though living with a hostfamily, you can prepare your own meals and buy your own food. (Available only in Milan)

OUR STUDENTS SAY...

Francesca
24 years from Australia

I loved studying at Linguaviva, the staff was very helpful, the location of the school was nice and very close to many attractions, and there are many levels of Italian classes so you can learn at your pace.

The school also organizes many activities after lesson or in the week end so there is always something interesting and funny to do. I highly recommend studying at Linguaviva.

LINGUAVIVA SUMMER SCHOOL FOR JUNIORS IN LIGNANO

Lignano, a peninsula stretching into the Adriatic Sea, is situated between Venice and Trieste.

Lignano is a popular holiday resort with a mild, healthy climate and outstanding facilities for sport and entertainment.

With its lively atmosphere and excellent amenities, Lignano provides the ideal environment for study and leisure.

Our International Summer School is in the mid-zone of Lignano between the deep blue of the sea and the peaceful green of the luxurious pinewood.

It is in a pleasant residential village, Villaggio Adriatico, which hosts holiday programmes for Italian teenagers.

Our junior centre has an extensive pinewood park, a wide private beach and numerous sport facilities such as swimming pool, basketball, volleyball and soccer courts.

It is the perfect setting to have outdoor classes and to organize sports and leisure activities.

Our courses are specifically aimed for teenagers, held by experienced teachers.

Learning a language or improving language skills can be fun.

During the activities students are divided in groups according to their age, whereas for Italian classes groups are formed according to language knowledge.

LINGUAVIVA CAMPUS

12 – 14 YEARS

Young students are closely monitored, the programme foresees 1 supervisor every 15 students.

They are hosted in a residential centre with full board.

Boys and girls sleep in separate triple rooms with private bathroom.

Students will enjoy many sport, leisure and evening activities which are always under the supervision of the group's tutor and tailored to age group.

15 – 16 YEARS

Supervision is foreseen for the young students, however they can move independently in the resort. Students can choose from a wide range of sports and creative activities.

During evening activities outside the holiday camp students are always escorted by our supervisors.

They are hosted in a residential centre with full board in triple rooms with private bathroom.

17 – 18 YEARS

Separated from the students of the younger age groups, senior students are hosted in a comfortable residence with full board. Linguaviva tutors will reside on site for support and assistance.

The activities are conceived to meet the students' wish to have fun, to move, to practise sports or express their own creative ideas. Students will enjoy more freedom and all the activities organized for them are customized to their interest.
