

English in Brussels Diplomas & Certificates

Though English is not one of Brussels's two official languages, the language is omnipresent in the streets on the markets and in the shops.

Among language schools, the European Capital is becoming more and more the preferred choice, due to its high degree of internationalization, cozy atmosphere and quite affordable costs of living.

If you enroll into the European Language Center's nine months English language program you can be sure that you will work on your individual language skills within 10 hours per week in very small groups with a highly qualified and motivated teacher within a private atmosphere.

The EULC teaching approach focuses on all sub-skills you will need to master on your way to a perfect English, i.e. listening and comprehension, speaking as well as writing. Our secret is the right mix of theoretical explanations and a whole lot of practical exercises, roll plays and case studies to apply your acquired skills on.

We understand that knowing a language is already very good, but having a certification is better and often even a requirement.

If you are learning English with the goal to look for a job or to study abroad, most of the host institutions will ask you for your score in one of the major internationally recognized language certificates, such as the "Test of English as a Foreign Language" (TOEFL).

TOEFL

The TOEFL test is THE reference in more than 130 countries including over 9000 institutions in the USA, the UK, Canada, Australia and New Zealand.

If you feel capable to face the challenge of the TOEFL test after having completed your 9 month language training with us, we will arrange your chance to do so.

Furthermore, you will be awarded the EULC certificate of completion and join our alumni network.

Living in the heart of Europe

This nine month stay offers you the best possibility to discover Belgium and its surrounding countries and to dive into the Belgian way of student's life.

Learn English and get the chance to practice it every day during your 9 months stay in one of the world's most international, Brussels. Get a taste of what it feels like to live in the European capital at the heart of the European Union.

The European Union

Europe is a continent very diverse in culture and language. Within the currently 28 member states of the European Union people speak no less than 24 different languages, English and French being among the most important ones.

Belgium

Belgium is the best example for the importance of languages in Europe. On the one hand it has three national languages (French, Dutch and German) itself, and on the other hand London, Amsterdam, Cologne, Luxembourg or Paris are no more than a two-hours car ride away from the Belgian borders.

Brussels

The Belgian capital with its around one million inhabitants is not only - with its young and dynamic population - very nice to live in, but also the host city of all major European institutions, such as the EU parliament, EU council and the EU commission, as well as the NATO and all kind of diplomatic representations from all over the world.

Accommodation

You do not need to worry about accommodation. Especially during summer holidays Brussels offers a lot of cozy - and not too expensive - student housing. Should you desire assistance with finding a place to stay, the EULC will certainly be able to help you!

French in Brussels

Diplomas & Certificates

French is one of Brussels' two official languages; French is hence the language spoken in the streets on the markets and in the shops.

Its central location in Europe and the fact that it is cheaper and a lot less flooded by tourists (compared to Paris) makes Brussels more and more the preferred choice of language students. Furthermore, Brussels is - as the EU capital - famous for its high degree of internationalization, cozy atmosphere and many students.

If you enroll into the European Language Center's nine months French language program you can be sure that you will work on your individual language skills within 20 hours per week in very small groups with a highly qualified and motivated teacher within a private atmosphere.

The EULC teaching approach focuses on all sub-skills you will need to master on your way to perfect French, i.e. comprehension, speaking as well as writing. Our secret is the right mix of theoretical explanations and a whole lot of practical exercises roll plays and case studies to apply your acquired skills on.

We understand that knowing a language is already very good, but having a certification is better and often even a requirement.

If you are learning French with the goal to look for a job or to study in France, Belgium or Canada most of the host institutions will ask you for your score in the major internationally recognized French language certificate, the "Diplôme d'étude en Langue Française" (DELF/DALF).

DELF

The DELF test is THE reference in all French speaking countries, such as Belgium, France or Canada. It consists of four parts that can be taken whenever a student feels ready. Each part consist of a written and an oral part and.

If you feel strong enough to face the challenge of the DELF/DALF test after - or within - your 9 month language training with us, you will get your chance to do so.

Furthermore, you will be awarded the EULC certificate of completion and join our alumni network.
